E.J. Salinas Community Center

December 2018 was a month full of excitement and Christmas Cheer! Commissioner Jesse Gonzalez and staff surprised the community with gifts, at the annual Christmas Party! The Elderly Program also enjoyed a merienda, played Loteria. At Kids' Café the children had lots of fun!
Thank you to our sponsors for their generous donations.

Thank you Commissioner for making this possible and bringing smiles to the children of the Quad Cities.