

The Drug Testing Unit performs on-site drug and alcohol examinations at the Community Supervision and Corrections Department. Samples obtained from offenders are secured in the Drug Testing Laboratory where the Drug Testing Unit Laboratory Technician processes the samples and provides the results to the offender's supervision officer or the sentencing court. This process is performed under strict offender identification and sample chain of custody procedures to eliminate the possibility of the offender tampering with the sample and results of the examination.