

Webb County, TX- The current criminal case of former Webb County Commissioner Mike Montemayor received its final verdict today. It is a very unfortunate situation, however I will continue to work to move this county forward in a positive light. Rest assured that Webb County will fully cooperate with the authorities on any and all matters.

Since the beginning of my administration as your Webb County Judge, I have shared my priority to have an open-door policy and transparency with our Webb County constituents and I will continue to work hard to ensure that the best interest of its citizens remains at the forefront.
